

THE GAZETTE.
SATURDAY, JANUARY 19.
Notice to Subscribers.
SUBSCRIBERS TO THE DAILY GAZETTE WHO DO NOT RECEIVE THEIR PAPER REGULARLY, WILL OBTAIN A FAVOR BY REMITTING THE AMOUNT DUE AT THE GAZETTE OFFICE IN ROOM.

LOCAL MATTERS.
Five pink jackets at one half usual price now at Archie Reid's.

For cough medicines go to Eldredge's. All patent medicines advertised in this paper are sold by Palmer & Stevens.

The best bargains ever known in Dolmans, ulsters and circulars at the great clearing sale at Archie Reid's.

Go to Eldredge's for your drugs. Just received, an assortment of ladies white hoods, umbrellas, and fasciators at McCullagh & Galbraith.

All kinds of winter garments at less than wholesale price to close now at Archie Reid's.

Ice delivered to any part of the city. C. Atwood & Co.

If you want a silk dress, go to McKoy & Bro's. They are making the lowest prices on fine silks in the city.

Notice.
There will be a meeting of the First Baptist church society held in Cannon's hall on Monday evening, January 21st, 1884, for the purpose of considering the matter of rebuilding the church edifice which was burned on the 13th inst, and for the purpose of accepting offers already made for a place to hold public service until a new house can be built.

By Order of Trustees.
A new and carefully selected stock of kid gloves in every style, and color, also all the opera tints, at McCullagh & Galbraith.

Best cigars in the city at Eldredge's. Smoke Sonfield's Smacks.

Tooth, hair, and nail brushes at Eldredge's. Men's 5 cents per yard; linen towel 5 cents per yard; ladies underwear 35 cents; ladies all wool under wear (fine) 90 cents; men's wool socks 18 cents per pair.

Chicago Cheap Store.
We are offering our entire line of men's silk and satin cravats and neck jackets, at one-half price.

McKoy & Bro.
For SALE—80 or 120 acres within 7 miles of the city, good buildings, also village store building and homestead for sale or trade for land, both splendid bargains. Inquire of J. G. Saxo.

Ask your dealer for Floristine Havana cigars. See E. Bowles' ad. in this paper.

We have just bought at sheriff's sale, a stock of fine and medium clothing which we shall sell at 50 cents on the dollar. CHICAGO CHEAP STORE.

Smoke Sonfield's Smacks.
M. C. Smith received this morning 5 pair more of those all wool white blankets that he is selling at $8.50 a pair. The usual price of these blankets among the stores on the street that bought their blankets early in the season is $6.00. Of course they cannot sell them until we are sold out.

Ask your dealer for a Smack.
Smoke Sonfield's Florentine Havana filled cigar, the best in the market.

Prentice & Evenson, opposite postoffice, sell "Salicyl" for rheumatism.

If you want a pair of the latest style of shoes, go to John Monaghan and ask for the Libby shoe.

Go to Palmer & Stevens' drug store for holiday presents.

Out glass bottle filled with best Cologne for 20 cents at Stearns & Baker.

Elegant cut glass bottles at Palmer & Stevens.

Special sale silk Handkerchiefs at Chicago store.

Holiday presents from twenty-five cents to twenty-five dollars at Whitton & McClean's.

Call at the Central carriage works on River street and examine their work, it can't be beat.

Something new in corsets, just opened at McKoy & Bro's.

Fine Perfumes at Prentice & Evenson's, opposite postoffice.

J. B. Gately furnishes ice by the load to any part of the city.

Fruit of the loom only 8 cents, at McKoy & Bro's.

Buy your wood of J. H. Gately Green or dry and of the best quality.

Thomas' Electric Oil, at Prentice & Evenson's, opposite postoffice.

"A Mountain Pink."
The common oatmeal will hold a regular meeting on Monday evening.
Rev. Father Murphy, of Clyman, Wis., will preach in St. Mary's church to-morrow at the usual hour.

Judge Patten has returned home from Chicago, where he has been for two or three days on business.

William Klumme, of Afton, received a severe injury to the palm of his left hand and index finger while cutting ice yesterday.

The Baptist Sunday school will hold its session to-morrow in the main and audience room of the Congregational church, at the close of morning service.

The Congregational and Baptist churches will worship together to-morrow morning and evening, at the usual hours. Preaching by Dr. Hodge.

The exhortationists who went to Chicago on Wednesday to witness the plays of Irving, and see the Battle of Gettysburg, have most all returned home, well satisfied with the trip.

"A Mountain Pink," which will be presented in the opera house this evening, is a very clever romantic drama, representing life among the moonshiners of the south, and should draw a full house.

William Garnet was before the municipal court to-day for examination on charge of stealing Mr. Sexton's overcoat at the time of the fire on Sunday night. The defendant was held for trial on the 20th inst.

The Concordia society will give a party on the 29th of this month. This will be one of the largest and most popular parties that society has given in a long time as extra preparations for the event are being made.

Last evening the members of Rock River Exemption No. 3, I. O. O. F., elected Past Chief Patriarch C. J. Blakeley as representative to the Grand Encampment, which will meet in Madison, February 5th.

Owing to the absence of an important witness in the case of Barriago against Kent, Judge Winslow ordered a recess of the circuit court until two o'clock on Monday, and the judge returned to his home in Racine.

Rev. W. C. Schumacher, pastor of the German M. E. church at Port Jackson, writes us that he cannot preach in this city to-morrow afternoon, on account of being obliged to officiate at a funeral at that time. He will be here on Sunday afternoon, February 2d.

Michael Hawkins, of the Empire Cross spring company, while engaged with a sand belt, met with an accident by which his left hand was badly injured, the flesh was terribly lacerated and an artery severed. It will be some months before he will have a chance to use the hand.

The Beloit Free Press—Robert Stoddard, the brakeman who was hurt on the North-western road at Racine yesterday, died at 8 o'clock last evening at the Central house. The surgeons did not operate upon him as they knew that he could not recover. The body was prepared for removal by undertaker Bouson and taken to Barbours last night.

The Anglo-worm club is no longer divided in opinion regarding John Dovey's goose bone. John, notwithstanding the opinion of the club, based upon the goose bone [proposition] of summer setting in between the 18th and 24th of this month, is busily engaged manufacturing his celebrated and popular brand of "Tiger" cigars, and is content with his own belief that summer is coming.

A. J. Ryan, author of the "Conquered Banner," and other poems, and at one time editor of the Southern Banner, has been engaged to lecture in St. Patrick's church, on the 27th inst, his subject being—Nature and Super-nature. The gentleman has the reputation of being a good speaker, and delivers a very interesting lecture, well worth the price of admission, which will be twenty-five cents.

Rev. D. F. Davies, late pastor of the Congregational church, will leave on Monday, for Columbus, Ohio, with his family, where they intend to reside this winter. Mr. Davies and family will take with them the best wishes of the people of this city, all of whom greatly regret the necessity which compelled them to make the change; and all will earnestly pray for the speedy restoration of his former health.

The Weather.
At seven o'clock this morning the thermometer registered 7 degrees above zero. Cloudy with north wind. At one o'clock p. m. the register was 20 degrees above zero. Partly cloudy with northwest wind. For the corresponding hours last year the register was 25 and 10 degrees above zero.

Old Fellows.
There will be a special meeting of Wisconsin Lodge No. 34, I. O. O. F., at 7:30 o'clock this evening, to make arrangements to attend the funeral of Brother J. M. Riker. The members of No. 30, and all Old Fellows in the city are invited to be present. By order, C. T. WILSON, N. G.

Death of H. Tattersall, Esq.
Last evening, at the age of 67 years, H. Tattersall, Esq., for thirty years a resident of Beloit, died after an illness of two days' duration, though he had been in declining health for several years.

Mr. Tattersall was a native of the Lehigh region of Pennsylvania, but removed to this city in 1853 from Hornellsville, N. Y., and during the past thirty years has been more or less actively engaged in the law, patent, pension, real estate and insurance business, in Beloit. His interest in public matters was always strong and only ceased with his death. He was a good citizen, and his influence was always given for the right, as it was given him to see it.—Beloit Free Press.

Ayer's Hair Vigor prevents the hair from turning gray, and restores gray hair to its original color. Try it.

Baxter's Mandrake Bitters, by purifying the blood, render the complexion clear and healthy. Price 25 cents. Sold by Stearns & Baker.

Get holiday presents of Green & Rice.

OBITUARY.
JAMES MOORE RIKER.
The old settlers of Janesville will be pleased to learn of the death of Mr. J. M. Riker, which event occurred at his home in the fourth ward last night at 12 o'clock, after a lingering illness of many years.

The deceased was born in New York city, October 17th 1811, and came to Janesville in 1839, where he has since resided. Engaged in the early part of his residence in Janesville, as a harness maker, he soon became acquainted with all business men; in 1854 he purchased the two story building on Milwaukee street adjoining the Ogden house, which he rebuilt making a five story brick business block, this he continued to occupy until the breaking out of the late war, when his health failed, and he was obliged to give up his business, to his sons, M. T. and C. A. Riker. The deceased had been a devoted Christian all his life, uniting with the Methodist church in Elmhurst, New York, at the age of seventeen, and with the First Methodist church of this city, when he settled here. He was also an honored member of the Odd Fellows fraternity, being a member of Wisconsin lodge No. 14. His father was a major in the war of 1812, and the deceased held the commission of colonel of the New York state militia, at the time William H. Seward was governor of that state. Although the deceased had been confined to his home for several years just previous to his death, and consequently not seen among the bustle of business, many old settlers who knew him in health, will pause silently for a moment, to recall the time when he was one of the most active among the living.

He leaves besides a very large circle of sympathizing friends, a bereaved wife, and six children: Mrs. C. A. Riker, of Barbours; Mrs. Rev. Thomas Clithero, of Waukegan; M. T. Riker, C. A. Riker, Mrs. G. E. Hall, and Miss Carrie Riker, of this city, to mourn his taking off.

The funeral will take place to-morrow afternoon, at two o'clock, at the First Methodist church, Rev. S. Lugg, assisted by Revs. C. B. Wilcox and C. E. Goldthorpe officiating, after which the remains will be taken in charge by the Odd Fellows, and buried in accordance with their ritual, in Oak Hill cemetery.

Feasting and Dancing.
Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Lortz, entertained about one hundred and twenty-five friends last night at their elegant and spacious residence in the third ward. The party was a splendidly arranged affair, and with the unbounded hospitality of the host and hostess, were surrounded by the most delicious of friends and neighbors especially pleasant. At an early hour in the evening the Arion quadrille band threw a charm about the occasion by discoursing some attractive music. At eleven o'clock the tables were spread in the third story where a most beautiful supper was served. When this interesting part of the evening's festivities had been concluded, the room was cleared and dancing began which was indulged in till after the hour of midnight.

CHURCH DIRECTORY.
Giving the Time and Place Where Divine Services Will Be Held on Sunday.

CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH.
Services, 10:30 A. M. and 7:00 P. M. Sabbath school at 10:30 A. M. Young people's meeting at 7:00 P. M. Prayer meeting Thursday evening at 7:30.

The Congregational and Baptist church will worship together to-morrow morning and evening at the usual hours. Preaching by Dr. Hodge.

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH—On Jackson street Rev. W. J. Jones, Pastor. Services at 10:30 A. M. and 7:00 P. M.

PREACHING by the pastor, morning topic, "Motives for Christian missions." Annual collection for our foreign missionary work. Special dime contributions by members of the Sabbath school. Evening service as usual. Thursday evening meeting, subject, "How can you know that your sins are forgiven." Please bring some verse of the bible that tells about this forgiveness.

M. T. RIKER'S CHURCH—Catholics—Corner of Wisconsin and North First streets. Rev. J. J. Riker, Pastor. Services at 8:00 and 10:30 A. M. Sunday school at 10:30 A. M. Young people's meeting at 7:00 P. M.

Rev. Father Murphy, of Clyman, Wis., will preach in St. Mary's church to-morrow.

ALL SOULS CHURCH—Corner of Court and Third streets. Sunday school at 10:30 A. M. Sunday service at 10:30 A. M.

COMMITTEE M. E. CHURCH—Corner of Main and Court streets. Rev. C. H. Wilcox, Pastor. Services at 10:30 A. M. and 7:00 P. M. Young people's meeting at 7:00 P. M. Prayer meeting Thursday evening at 7:30.

First M. E. CHURCH—Corner of Jackson and Court streets. Rev. J. J. Riker, Pastor. Services at 10:30 A. M. and 7:00 P. M. Young people's meeting at 7:00 P. M. Prayer meeting Thursday evening at 7:30.

ST. PATRICK'S CHURCH—Corner of Holmes and Court streets. Rev. E. M. McGinness, Pastor. Services at 8:00 A. M. and 10:30 A. M. Young people's meeting at 7:00 P. M. Prayer meeting Thursday evening at 7:30.

N. M. C. A.—Regular Sabbath afternoon meeting at 2:30 P. M. in the Y. M. C. A. room. All are welcome.

CHRIST CHURCH—On Court street. Rev. C. M. Patten, Pastor. Services at 10:30 A. M. and 7:00 P. M.

What It Will Be.
The coming Burns anniversary will be one of the greatest celebrations that has taken place in Janesville for a great many years. The gathering of the clans will be immense. All the mistakes of former years will be buried by the brilliancy of the celebration of 1884, which is gotten up for the purpose of having a night of social enjoyment in memory of the world's poet, Robert Burns; and every man, woman and child will receive the worth of their money or it will be refunded to them again. We invite not only Scotchmen but all true admirers of the poet to come and with us to honor to the man who wrote

"What ails the life of man
And turns his life to tears?"

When science admitted that Rheumatism and Neuritis had their seat in the blood, it remained to find a successful remedy for the poisonous and which remedy? The remedy has been found. It has been named Arizomones, which is a Greek word composed of arizo, a prize, and monos, to bear away, that is "bearing away the prize." And it does both in a remarkable and final efficiency. Says Mrs. Eliza Evans, of Upper Dorby, Delaware county, Penn.: "After the third dose of Arizomones I rested better than I had done for months."

Daughters, Wives and Mothers.
Dr. Marshall's Cataplasms, a Female Remedy, guaranteed to give satisfaction or money refunded. Will cure gonorrhea, all venereal troubles, inflammation of the bladder, falling and displacement of the uterus, leucorrhoea, and all other diseases of the female system. Price 25 cents per box.

Rock Candy Cough Cure.
Discovered by C. E. Moore, a refined cough medicine for children. ROCK CANDY COUGH CURE. Good for all coughs, colds, croup, whooping cough, and all other ailments of the throat and lungs. Price 25 cents per bottle.

Positive Cure for Piles.
To the people of this County we would say we have been given the Agency of Dr. Marshall's Pile Cure, a positive cure for all cases of piles, internal, external, mixed, bleeding or itching piles. Price 25 cents per box. Sold by Palmer & Stevens.

Mineral Spring Water.
Mineral Spring Water, pure and healthful, sold by Palmer & Stevens.

WASHINGTON CITY.
Opening of the Debate on the Fift John Porter Case.
Rejection of the Mexican Treaty by the Senate—Huntington Makes a Plea—News Notes.

WASHINGTON CITY, Jan. 19.—The bill for the relief of Fitz John Porter was considered by the house in committee of the whole, and was reported out by a vote of 153 yeas to 133 nays, and was ordered to be printed.

Senators opened the general debate with a speech by Senator Sherman, in which he stated that he was in favor of the bill, and that he would support it to the end.

Senators followed in opposition to the bill. His speech was mainly devoted to an examination of the history of events which led to the court-martial of Porter, with a view to show that that officer was more loyal to the Union than to the country.

Senators followed in opposition to the bill. His speech was mainly devoted to an examination of the history of events which led to the court-martial of Porter, with a view to show that that officer was more loyal to the Union than to the country.

Senators followed in opposition to the bill. His speech was mainly devoted to an examination of the history of events which led to the court-martial of Porter, with a view to show that that officer was more loyal to the Union than to the country.

Senators followed in opposition to the bill. His speech was mainly devoted to an examination of the history of events which led to the court-martial of Porter, with a view to show that that officer was more loyal to the Union than to the country.

Senators followed in opposition to the bill. His speech was mainly devoted to an examination of the history of events which led to the court-martial of Porter, with a view to show that that officer was more loyal to the Union than to the country.

Senators followed in opposition to the bill. His speech was mainly devoted to an examination of the history of events which led to the court-martial of Porter, with a view to show that that officer was more loyal to the Union than to the country.

Senators followed in opposition to the bill. His speech was mainly devoted to an examination of the history of events which led to the court-martial of Porter, with a view to show that that officer was more loyal to the Union than to the country.

Senators followed in opposition to the bill. His speech was mainly devoted to an examination of the history of events which led to the court-martial of Porter, with a view to show that that officer was more loyal to the Union than to the country.

Senators followed in opposition to the bill. His speech was mainly devoted to an examination of the history of events which led to the court-martial of Porter, with a view to show that that officer was more loyal to the Union than to the country.

Senators followed in opposition to the bill. His speech was mainly devoted to an examination of the history of events which led to the court-martial of Porter, with a view to show that that officer was more loyal to the Union than to the country.

Senators followed in opposition to the bill. His speech was mainly devoted to an examination of the history of events which led to the court-martial of Porter, with a view to show that that officer was more loyal to the Union than to the country.

Senators followed in opposition to the bill. His speech was mainly devoted to an examination of the history of events which led to the court-martial of Porter, with a view to show that that officer was more loyal to the Union than to the country.

Senators followed in opposition to the bill. His speech was mainly devoted to an examination of the history of events which led to the court-martial of Porter, with a view to show that that officer was more loyal to the Union than to the country.

Senators followed in opposition to the bill. His speech was mainly devoted to an examination of the history of events which led to the court-martial of Porter, with a view to show that that officer was more loyal to the Union than to the country.

Senators followed in opposition to the bill. His speech was mainly devoted to an examination of the history of events which led to the court-martial of Porter, with a view to show that that officer was more loyal to the Union than to the country.

Senators followed in opposition to the bill. His speech was mainly devoted to an examination of the history of events which led to the court-martial of Porter, with a view to show that that officer was more loyal to the Union than to the country.

Senators followed in opposition to the bill. His speech was mainly devoted to an examination of the history of events which led to the court-martial of Porter, with a view to show that that officer was more loyal to the Union than to the country.

Senators followed in opposition to the bill. His speech was mainly devoted to an examination of the history of events which led to the court-martial of Porter, with a view to show that that officer was more loyal to the Union than to the country.

Senators followed in opposition to the bill. His speech was mainly devoted to an examination of the history of events which led to the court-martial of Porter, with a view to show that that officer was more loyal to the Union than to the country.

Senators followed in opposition to the bill. His speech was mainly devoted to an examination of the history of events which led to the court-martial of Porter, with a view to show that that officer was more loyal to the Union than to the country.

Senators followed in opposition to the bill. His speech was mainly devoted to an examination of the history of events which led to the court-martial of Porter, with a view to show that that officer was more loyal to the Union than to the country.

Senators followed in opposition to the bill. His speech was mainly devoted to an examination of the history of events which led to the court-martial of Porter, with a view to show that that officer was more loyal to the Union than to the country.

Senators followed in opposition to the bill. His speech was mainly devoted to an examination of the history of events which led to the court-martial of Porter, with a view to show that that officer was more loyal to the Union than to the country.

Senators followed in opposition to the bill. His speech was mainly devoted to an examination of the history of events which led to the court-martial of Porter, with a view to show that that officer was more loyal to the Union than to the country.

Senators followed in opposition to the bill. His speech was mainly devoted to an examination of the history of events which led to the court-martial of Porter, with a view to show that that officer was more loyal to the Union than to the country.

Senators followed in opposition to the bill. His speech was mainly devoted to an examination of the history of events which led to the court-martial of Porter, with a view to show that that officer was more loyal to the Union than to the country.

Senators followed in opposition to the bill. His speech was mainly devoted to an examination of the history of events which led to the court-martial of Porter, with a view to show that that officer was more loyal to the Union than to the country.

Senators followed in opposition to the bill. His speech was mainly devoted to an examination of the history of events which led to the court-martial of Porter, with a view to show that that officer was more loyal to the Union than to the country.

WASHINGTON CITY.
Opening of the Debate on the Fift John Porter Case.
Rejection of the Mexican Treaty by the Senate—Huntington Makes a Plea—News Notes.

WASHINGTON CITY, Jan. 19.—The bill for the relief of Fitz John Porter was considered by the house in committee of the whole, and was reported out by a vote of 153 yeas to 133 nays, and was ordered to be printed.

Senators opened the general debate with a speech by Senator Sherman, in which he stated that he was in favor of the bill, and that he would support it to the end.

Senators followed in opposition to the bill. His speech was mainly devoted to an examination of the history of events which led to the court-martial of Porter, with a view to show that that officer was more loyal to the Union than to the country.

Senators followed in opposition to the bill. His speech was mainly devoted to an examination of the history of events which led to the court-martial of Porter, with a view to show that that officer was more loyal to the Union than to the country.

Senators followed in opposition to the bill. His speech was mainly devoted to an examination of the history of events which led to the court-martial of Porter, with a view to show that that officer was more loyal to the Union than to the country.

Senators followed in opposition to the bill. His speech was mainly devoted to an examination of the history of events which led to the court-martial of Porter, with a view to show that that officer was more loyal to the Union than to the country.

Senators followed in opposition to the bill. His speech was mainly devoted to an examination of the history of events which led to the court-martial of Porter, with a view to show that that officer was more loyal to the Union than to the country.

Senators followed in opposition to the bill. His speech was mainly devoted to an examination of the history of events which led to the court-martial of Porter, with a view to show that that officer was more loyal to the Union than to the country.

Senators followed in opposition to the bill. His speech was mainly devoted to an examination of the history of events which led to the court-martial of Porter, with a view to show that that officer was more loyal to the Union than to the country.

Senators followed in opposition to the bill. His speech was mainly devoted to an examination of the history of events which led to the court-martial of Porter, with a view to show that that officer was more loyal to the Union than to the country.

Senators followed in opposition to the bill. His speech was mainly devoted to an examination of the history of events which led to the court-martial of Porter, with a view to show that that officer was more loyal to the Union than to the country.

Senators followed in opposition to the bill. His speech was mainly devoted to an examination of the history of events which led to the court-martial of Porter, with a view to show that that officer was more loyal to the Union than to the country.

Senators followed in opposition to the bill. His speech was mainly devoted to an examination of the history of events which led to the court-martial of Porter, with a view to show that that officer was more loyal to the Union than to the country.

Senators followed in opposition to the bill. His speech was mainly devoted to an examination of the history of events which led to the court-martial of Porter, with a view to show that that officer was more loyal to the Union than to the country.

Senators followed in opposition to the bill. His speech was mainly devoted to an examination of the history of events which led to the court-martial of Porter, with a view to show that that officer was more loyal to the Union than to the country.

Senators followed in opposition to the bill. His speech was mainly devoted to an examination of the history of events which led to the court-martial of Porter, with a view to show that that officer was more loyal to the Union than to the country.

Senators followed in opposition to the bill. His speech was mainly devoted to an examination of the history of events which led to the court-martial of Porter, with a view to show that that officer was more loyal to the Union than to the country.

Senators followed in opposition to the bill. His speech was mainly devoted to an examination of the history of events which led to the court-martial of Porter, with a view to show that that officer was more loyal to the Union than to the country.

Senators followed in opposition to the bill. His speech was mainly devoted to an examination of the history of events which led to the court-martial of Porter, with a view to show that that officer was more loyal to the Union than to the country.

Senators followed in opposition to the bill. His speech was mainly devoted to an examination of the history of events which led to the court-martial of Porter, with a view to show that that officer was more loyal to the Union than to the country.

Senators followed in opposition to the bill. His speech was mainly devoted to an examination of the history of events which led to the court-martial of Porter, with a view to show that that officer was more loyal to the Union than to the country.

Senators followed in opposition to the bill. His speech was mainly devoted to an examination of the history of events which led to the court-martial of Porter, with a view to show that that officer was more loyal to the Union than to the country.

Senators followed in opposition to the bill. His speech was mainly devoted to an examination of the history of events which led to the court-martial of Porter, with a view to show that that officer was more loyal to the Union than to the country.

Senators followed in opposition to the bill. His speech was mainly devoted to an examination of the history of events which led to the court-martial of Porter, with a view to show that that officer was more loyal to the Union than to the country.

Senators followed in opposition to the bill. His speech was mainly devoted to an examination of the history of events which led to the court-martial of Porter, with a view to show that that officer was more loyal to the Union than to the country.

Senators followed in opposition to the bill. His speech was mainly devoted to an examination of the history of events which led to the court-martial of Porter, with a view to show that that officer was more loyal to the Union than to the country.

Senators followed in opposition to the bill. His speech was mainly devoted to an examination of the history of events which led to the court-martial of Porter, with a view to show that that officer was more loyal to the Union than to the country.

Senators followed in opposition to the bill. His speech was mainly devoted to an examination of the history of events which led to the court-martial of Porter, with a view to show that that officer was more loyal to the Union than to the country.

Senators followed in opposition to the bill. His speech was mainly devoted to an examination of the history of events which led to the court-martial of Porter, with a view to show that that officer was more loyal to the Union than to the country.

Senators followed in opposition to the bill. His speech was mainly devoted to an examination of the history of events which led to the court-martial of Porter, with a view to show that that officer was more loyal to the Union than to the country.

LOCAL MATTERS.
A fine residence with spacious grounds, near Dr. Palmer's, for sale by C. E. Bowles.
$2,000 worth of robes and blankets to be sold regardless of cost at Wm. Sadler's, 35 East Milwaukee street, under opera house.

A nice home in 4th ward, five blocks from postoffice, $1,800. C. E. Bowles.

Holmes' Catarrh Cure is sold by Prentice & Evenson, opposite postoffice.

Good goods at the very lowest prices, is what McKoy & Bro. say for the next 30 days.

$1,000 home for $750. C. E. Bowles.

A fine of real estate, collars, shirts, etc., a novelty in neck wear, at New York Savings store.

Dolmans less than cost at McKoy & Bro's.

If you want to buy a Rock county farm, a house and lot or business block in the city, start a farm or work or house to live